MARKET ANNOUNCEMENT

FIRE AT COURTS NAVUA BRANCH

The Company announces that the Courts Navua Branch was engulfed by a fire which started late evening on Saturday the 16th of April 2016. The branch was closed and no employees were on the premises when the fire started. The damage to the branch was extensive. This branch is a small branch operation compared to other branches. The branch was insured for material damage and business interruption and any losses to the company would be minimal. The building is owned by an external landlord and we will discuss with them the building restoration works with the intention of recommencing branch operations at the earliest. The seven employees will be reassigned to other operations of the Company until Navua Branch operations recommence.
